

Value of the Month

June 2024

A value is a principle which guides our thinking and behaviour

September - Respect
October - Consideration
November - Tolerance
December - Hope
January - Determination
February - Love
March - Confidence

April - Self Control
May - Trust and Honesty

Last month's value

How did exploring the value of Trust and Honesty guide your thinking and behaviour?

June 2024's Value
Courage

What does

Courage mean?

Courage is being able to face your fears.

Courage is doing what you know is the right thing, even when it is very difficult.

It is having the inner strength to be the best that you can be.

What is

Courage?

Courage is when we do something that might frighten us. It is often called bravery.

It is doing what we know is the right thing even when it is very difficult.

It is taking a risk for a greater purpose.

What is

Courage?

Watch this video clip from the Good Dinosaur

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VjOu-FJbWw0>

What is

Courage?

Arlo the dinosaur is scared of most things. His dad helps him to show courage.

He says 'Sometimes you've got to get through your fear, to see the beauty on the other side!'

That's what it's like for us sometimes - we have to overcome our fear or worries when we show courage.

What is

Courage?

Think of people around us who show courage in their day to day lives?

Who are they?

What sort of jobs do they do?

What is

Courage?

The Police, Fire Service, Ambulance Service, Mountain Rescue, RNLI, the armed forces.

How do these people show courage?

What is

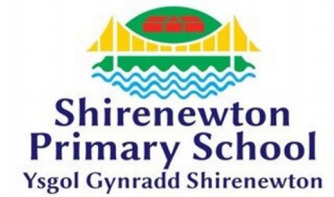

Courage?

In Ukraine now, there are lots of people showing courage.

What is

Courage?

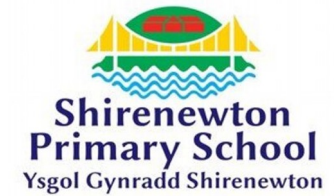

Real life courage for you

Courage takes practice, the more you practice the easier it becomes.

What is

Courage?

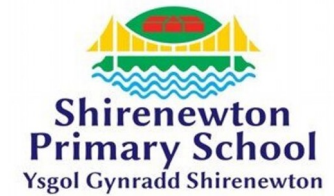

What does courage look like for you?

Do the right thing, even if no one else does, even if no one is watching.

That's courage!

What is

Courage?

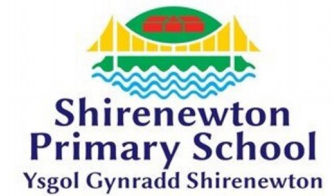

What does courage look like for you?

Trying something new, even when you know you might fail at first.

That's courage!

What is

Courage?

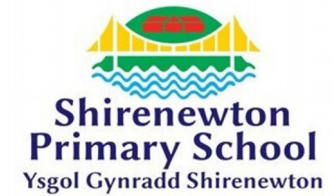

What does courage look like for you?

Trying a food you think you might not like.

That's courage!

What is

Courage?

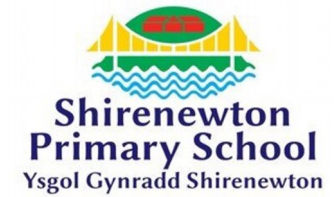

What does courage look like for you?

Telling the truth, even though there may be a consequence.

That's courage!

What is

Courage?

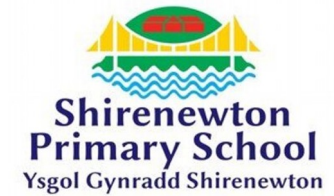

What does courage look like for you?

Riding a bike without stabilisers.
That's courage!

What is

Courage?

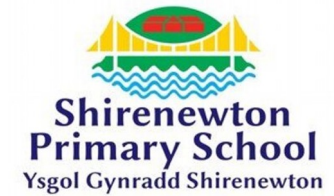

What does courage look like for you?

Admitting your mistakes and learning from them.

That's courage!

What is

Courage?

What does courage look like for you?

Standing up for someone who is being Mistreated.

That's courage!

Courage?

It takes courage to admit you are wrong.

It takes courage to learn from your mistakes.

It takes courage to do make difficult choices.

It takes courage to make new starts, new friends, try new things.

Almost everything we do takes courage.

Are you a cat or a lion?

Courage?

Be patient, overcoming fears takes time, be patient with yourself. Be patient with others who are facing fears.

Encourage yourself and others to always do what's right.

Don't give up!

Honesty

He rang the police, taxi firms and everybody he knew
The violin was in Mohammed Khalil's taxi and he hadn't realised. He left it in the taxi over-night.

When Mohammed got to the airport his friends told him about the missing violin.

When he looked in the back of his taxi there it was!

Honesty

Mohammed handed the violin back to Phillipe Quint who was delighted

Phillipe gave Mohammed all the money he had on him and gave all the taxi drivers a concert

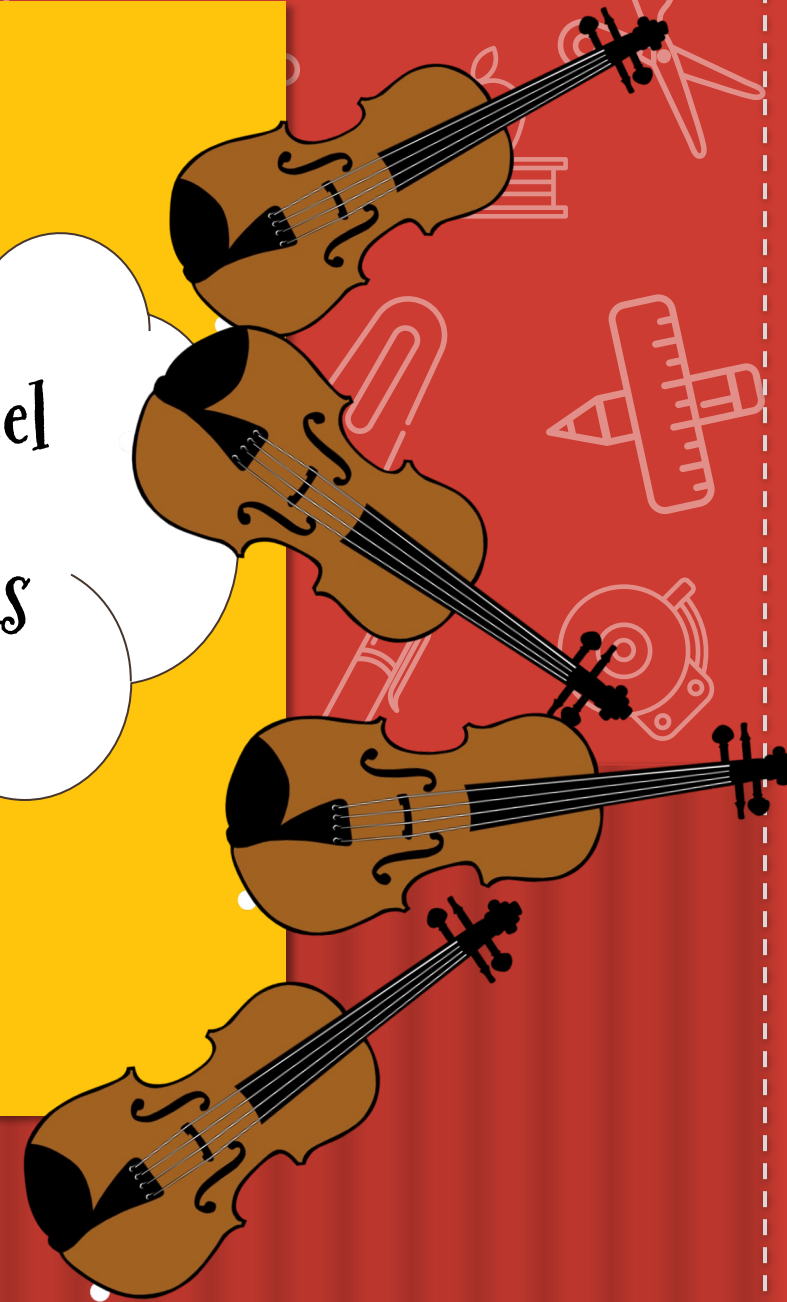

The mayor of New Jersey heard what had happened and gave a speech about Mohammed's honesty and gave him a special medal from the city.

H^oneSty

Would you have done
the same?

How do you feel about Mohammed as a person?

H^oneSty

What is the moral of the story?

The moral of the story is to tell the truth and be honest.

T^emp^tatⁱoⁿ

In small amounts these are fine but we need Self-Control to prevent us having too much of them. But this can be very hard!

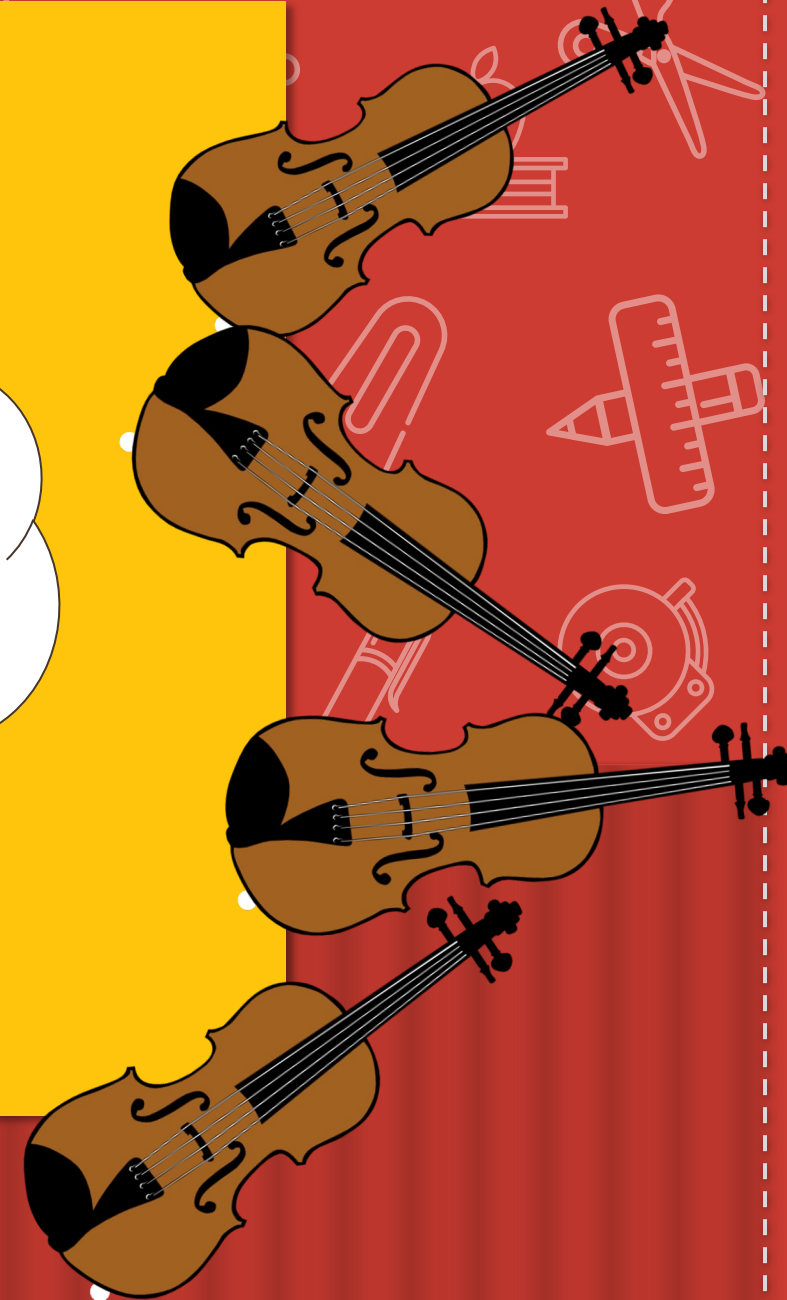

In small amounts these are fine but we need Self-Control to prevent us having too much of them.
But this can be very hard!

H^oneSty

What would have happened if Phillippe hadn't told people the violin was lost?

What would have happened if Mohammed had kept the violin?

What does

being honest

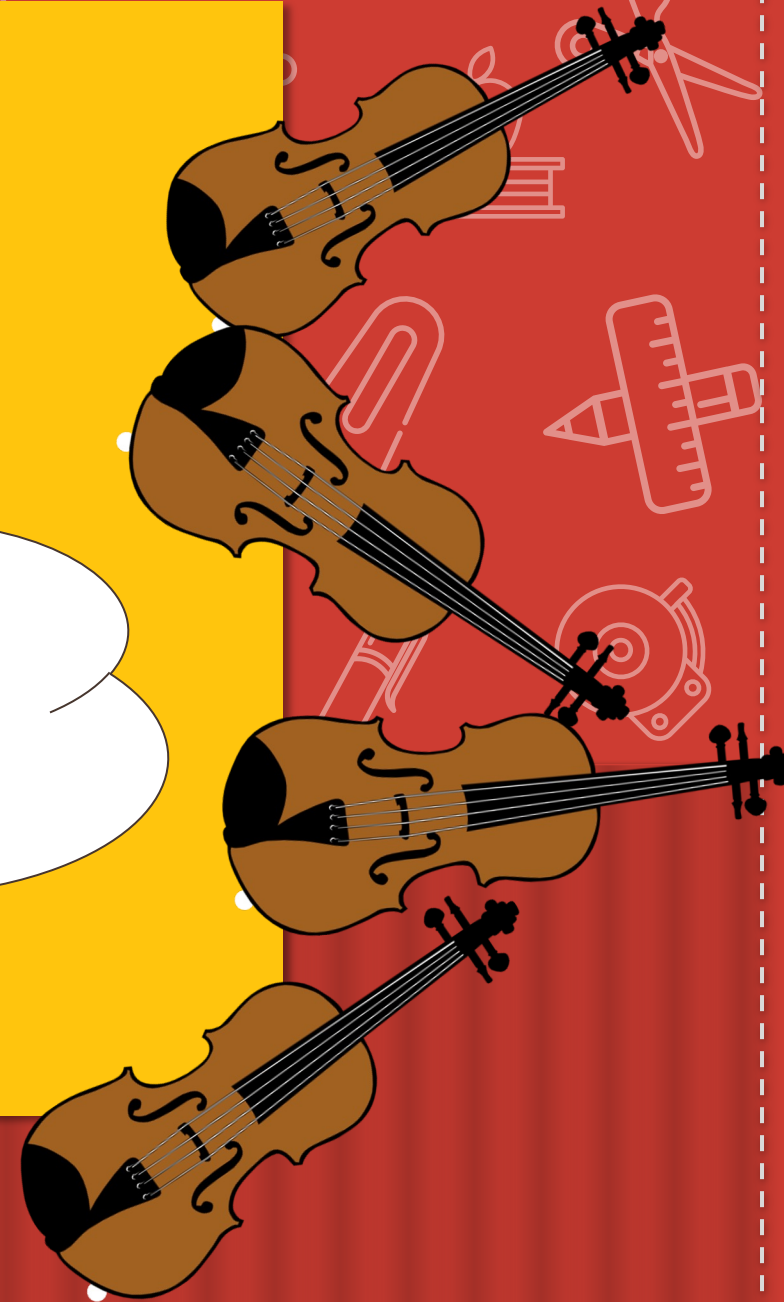

look like in this story?

We never keep something we have found because we think of how the person who has lost it would feel.

If we make a mistake, or lose something precious we tell someone so they can help us.

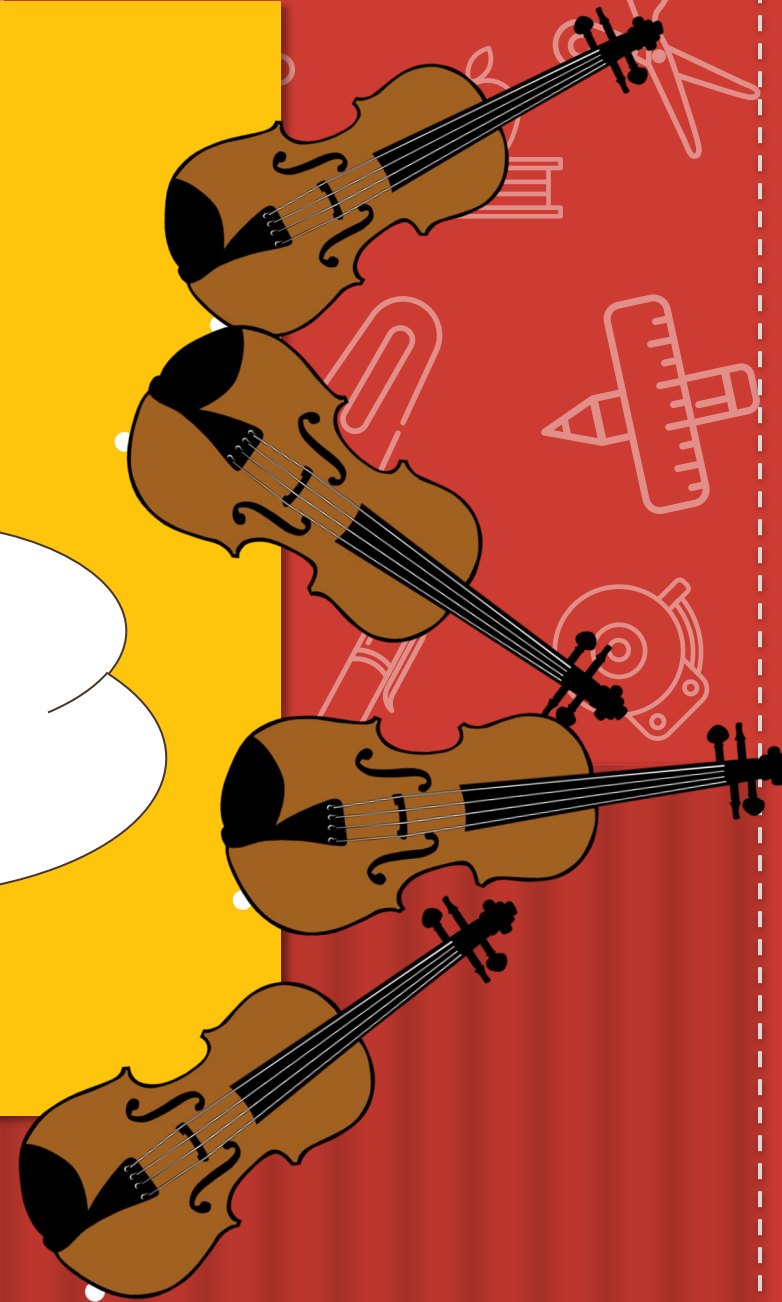

H^oneSty

What is the opposite of honesty?

H^oneSty

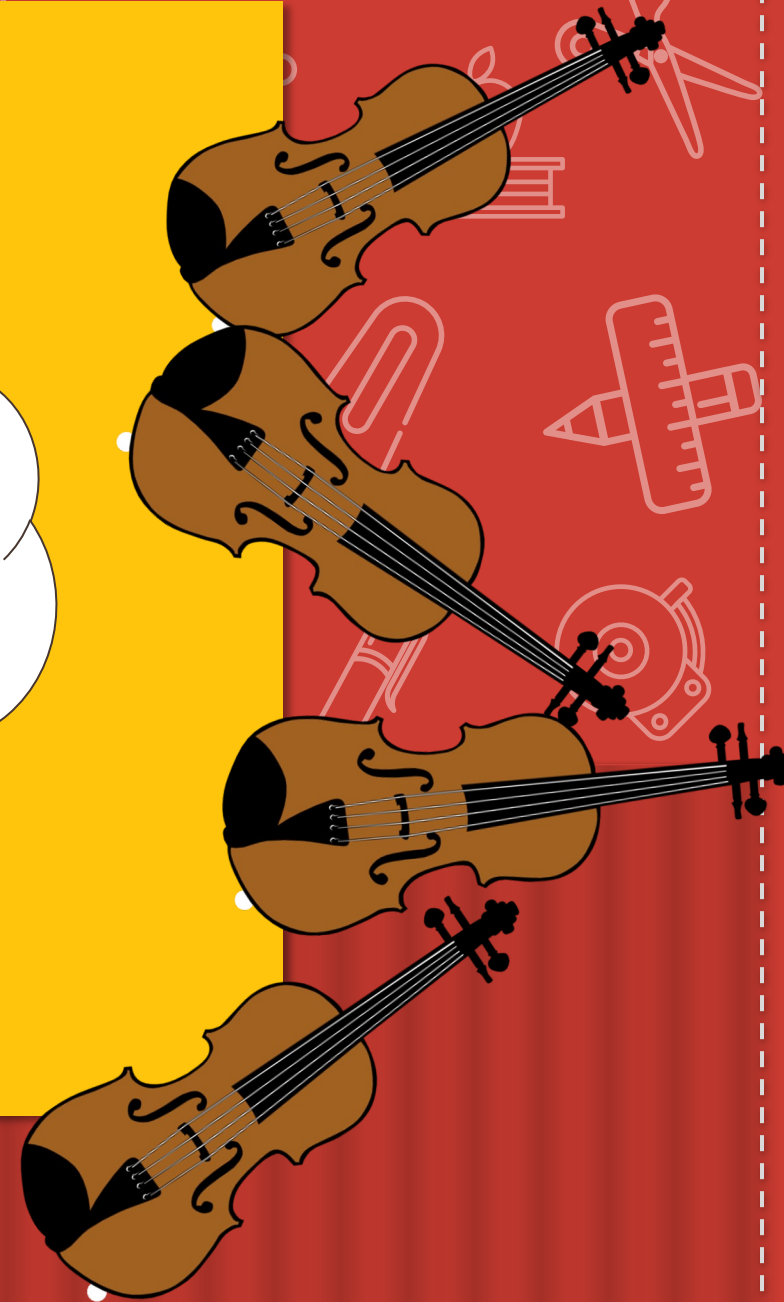

Dishonesty

Dishonesty

Have you ever told a lie?

Why did you tell your lie?

Dishonesty

To stop us from being embarrassed

To get attention

To stop us from getting into trouble

To make ourselves look better

H^oneS^ty

Your football smashes someone's window.

Q: How do you feel?

Q: What should you do?

Q: Why might someone be dishonest or lie?

H^oneSty

You lost your temper and hurt someone on the playground

Q: How do you feel?

Q: What should you do?

Q: Why might someone be dishonest or lie?

H^oneSty

Telling the truth/ being honest stops people getting hurt

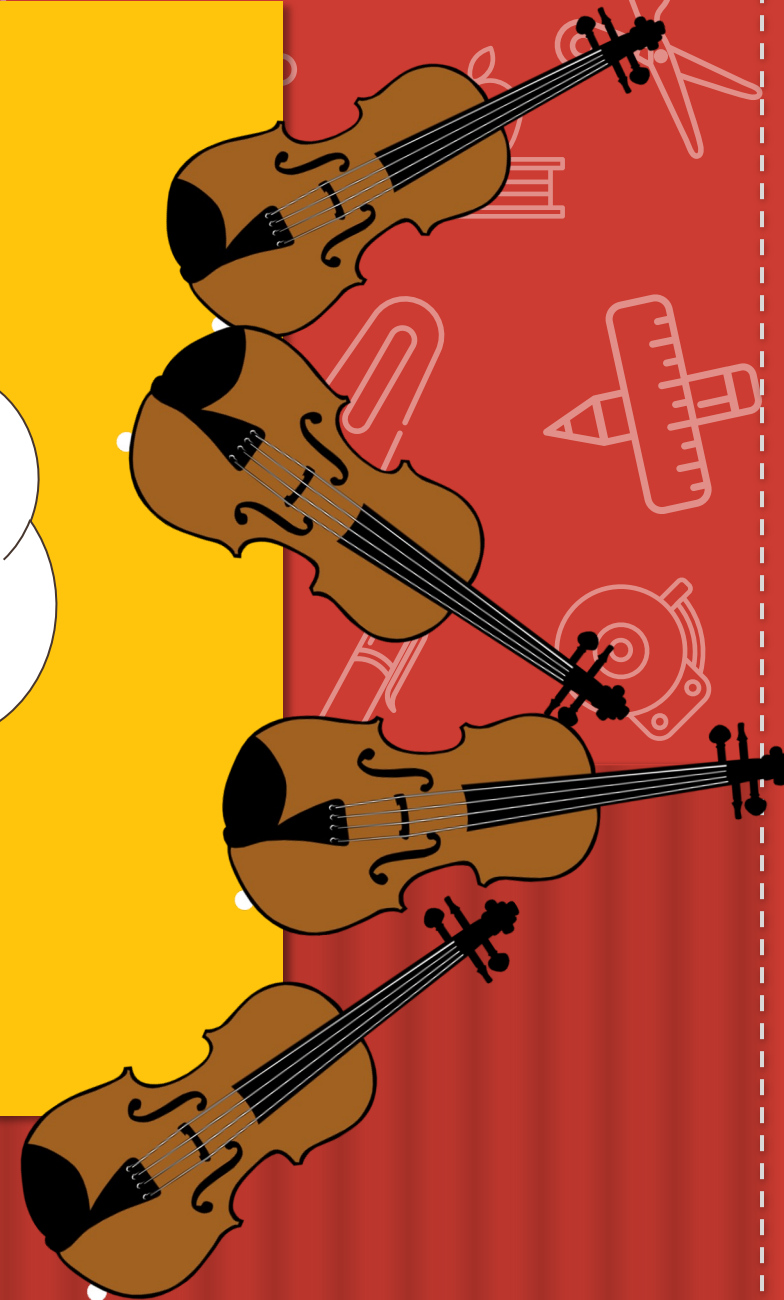

Telling the truth makes you feel better

Telling the truth enables people trust you

Trust

Belief that someone is telling the truth

Belief that someone is reliable - so they won't let you down

Trust

What happens when people break or lose
trust?

Broken Trust

Sam's teacher had given the children in their class some new play equipment. Her only rule was to stay away from the school roof.

That morning Sam was throwing a ball around the playground with some friends.

The ball accidentally went onto the school roof.

Q: How would Sam and his friends feel?

Q: What should they do?

Broken Trust

Sam and his friends said nothing and lined up with the rest of the class.

Their teacher asked the class where the ball was and who was playing with it. They said nothing.

Q: How does the teacher feel?

Q: How does Sam and his friends feel?

Q: How do the rest of the class feel?

Broken Trust

The teacher told the class that no-one would be in trouble she just wanted to know where it was. They said nothing.

The teacher asked if anyone had seen anyone playing with the ball. They said nothing.

The teacher explained that if no-one owned up they would have to stop all the play equipment going outside.

They said nothing

Q: How does the teacher feel?

Q: How does Sam and his friends feel?

Q: How does the class feel?

Broken Trust

Sam owned up and explained that the ball was on the roof and it was an accident.

Q: How does the teacher feel?

Q: How does Sam and his friends feel?

Q: How does the class feel?

Trust

*Have you ever lost someone's trust?
How did that make you feel?*

Who do you trust?

Your parents?

Other family members?

Staff in school?

Your friends?

Who might trust you?

Concerns and Worries

If you have any concerns or worries at school, about you or someone else, you can trust the adults in school to help you.

Sometimes someone tells you to keep a secret which worries you. The right thing to do is to tell a trusted grown up.

Even if you think or someone tells you that you'll be in trouble for telling we always have your best interest at heart and will try to help you!

